Dear Mr. Smathers:

This is a final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request to U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) for a copy of "the contents of the My Documents Folder (or any other location used as the primary location to store electronic documents) on Dorothy Pullo's work station and laptop computes (and any other computer assigned to this person)."

An independent reviewer conducted a comprehensive search of Ms. Pullo's computer for records that would be responsive to your request. Unfortunately, based on the information you provided, we were unable to locate or identify any responsive records.

While an adequate search was conducted, you have the right to appeal this determination that no records exist within CBP that would be responsive to your request. Should you wish to do so, you must send your appeal and a copy of this letter, within 60 days of the date of this letter, to: FOIA Appeals, Policy and Litigation Branch, U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Mint Annex, 799 Ninth Street, NW, 5th Floor, Washington, DC 20229-1179, following the procedures outlined in the DHS FOIA regulations at Title 6 C.F.R. § 5.9. Your envelope and letter should be marked "FOIA Appeal." Copies of the FOIA and DHS regulations are available at www.dhs.gov/foia.

The Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) also mediates disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. If you are requesting access to your own records (which is considered a Privacy Act request), you should know that OGIS does not have the authority to handle requests made under the Privacy Act of 1974. If you wish to contact OGIS, you may email them at ogis@nara.gov or call (877) 684-6448.

This office may be reached at (202) 325-0150. Please notate file number 2011F06896 on any future correspondence to CBP related to this request.

Sincerely,

Dorothy Pullo
